Please read the following regarding AP Exams
AP Exams begin Monday May 4th and run through Friday May 15

Initial

_____ I understand that I am responsible for checking the College Board website for the correct date and time of the exam(s) I wish to take.

_____ I understand that I must pay $94.00 for each AP exam and a check made out to Langley High School will be submitted with this form. There will be no refunds once payment is processed.

_____ I understand that after Nov 15th a $40.00 fee will be applied to any unused or canceled exams.

_____ I understand that if an AM exam is given I need to be at my testing location by 8:15 am. If the exam is a PM exam, I must be at my testing location by 11:45 am. The exception is AP Physics C: E&M need to report by 1:30 pm.

_____ I understand that I am responsible for checking the Collegeboard website regarding their new fee structure.

_____ I understand that I am responsible for bringing the correct testing materials to the exam. Every student at a minimum must have a #2 pencil (no mechanical pencil) and black or blue pen. Other materials may include a calculator, extra batteries, AP student pack and ID (if coming from another school), and your six digit school code. Homeschool students will be provided with their state or country's home-school code at the time of the exam.

_____ I understand that Collegeboard has strict guidelines to their late exam policy. Late testing will ONLY be granted in the case of two tests given during the same date and time and serious illness that is accompanied by a doctors note. Late fees may apply.
